

Four-day passes for Comic-Con 2011 first went on sale during Comic-Con 2010 last July and included the Wednesday, July 20, 2011 Preview Night pass. Due to overwhelming popularity, those four-day passes with Preview Night sold out before the 2010 convention ended.

Once Comic-Con registration is up and running again, four-day passes without Preview Night will be sold. Adults are $105 and Juniors and Seniors are $52 . All passes are only available via the Comic-Con International website: www.comic-con.org (<http://www.comic-con.org/cci/>)

0 0 0

Like Tweet Print Report

Jasmine Rios, San Diego Comic-Con Examiner

Originally from San Francisco, Jasmine Rios is a freelance writer based in San Diego. Schooled in music, drama, and dance, Rios furthered her education at San Jose State University by pursuing Journalism & Mass Communications. In 1997, she received her bachelors degree in Advertising. Currently,...

- 40+ Single
Meet & Date Affluent Older Singles. Everyone is Serious & Screened !
www.MatureDatingOnly.com
- Dallas Singles
Prescreened, Upscale MatchMaking Comfortably Meet Dallas Singles.
www.realdallassingles.com
- Chicago Dating Network
Personal Touch Matchmaking for over 20 years
<http://www.datingnetworkchicago.com>

Chitika | Opt out?

AdChoices